TO HENRY ALBION MILLIS

Who, as a citizen, is highly respected;
as a churchman, is regarded a leader;
as a man interested in youth, is widely appreciated;
as a Trustee of the College, is greatly honored; and more especially, because of his thought for the welfare and progress of the College as manifested in his private and public concern, we dedicate

JOHN R. ALBERTSON

HIGH POINT, N. C.

A.B.

Rutherford College, 1, 2.

John's quiet, unobtrusive manner tells us nothing of himself. We do know, though, that he is a Southerner of the old breed—easy-going, slow, but right there when needed. Too, John is a friend to everyone.

ELIZABETH BAGWELL

HENDERSON, N. C.

A.B.

Nikanthan Literary Society, 1, 2, 3, 4; President, 4; Christian Endeavor, 1, 2, 3, 4; President, 4; W. A. A., 3, 4; Marshal, 3; Class Secretary, 3; Who's Who, 4; Lighted Lamp, 3, 4.

Lib's being tiny does not prevent her receiving many honors here.

MARGARET BROWN BAILEY

HIGH POINT, N. C.

A.B.

G. C., 1; Who's Who, 4.

A ready smile, kindness, soft voice, willingness to help, a great deal of intelligence—this and much, much more go to make up the whole of Margaret Bailey. We admire her fine efforts towards winning a degree.

WILLIAM C. BARNHOUSE

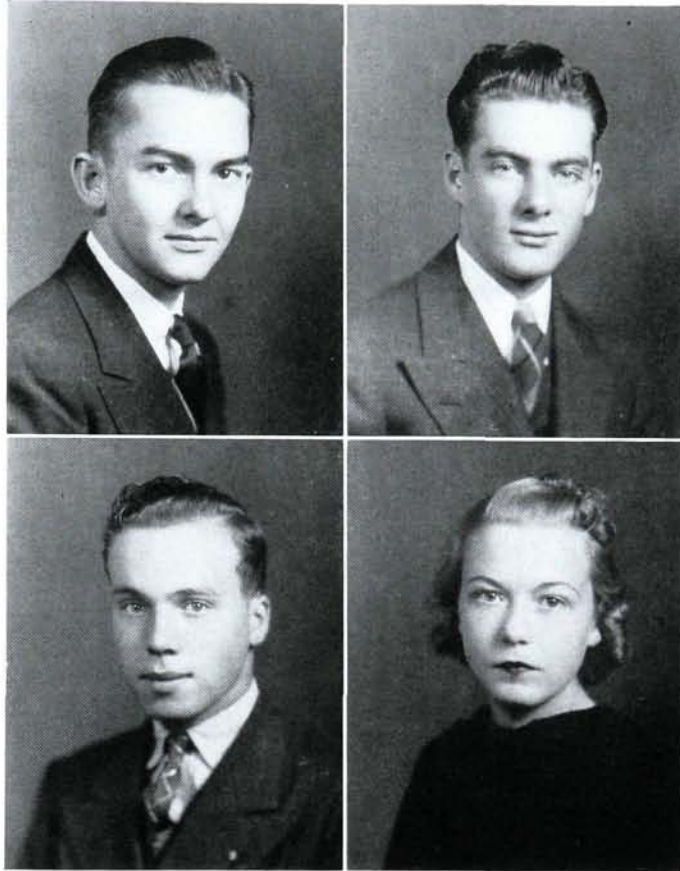

BELLE VALLEY, OHIO

A.B.

Akrothinian Literary Society, 1, 2, 3, 4; Chaplain, 1, 2; Y. M. C. A., 1, 2, 3; Secretary, 2; Ministerial Association, 1, 2, 3, 4; Vice-President, 2; Secretary, 2; Hi-Po, 1, 2, 3, 4; Circulation Department, 1, 2; Advertising Manager, 3; Business Manager, 4.

"Barney" is a born politician.

BRAXTON EARL BARRETT

COMO, N. C.

A.B.

Chowan, 1, 2, 3.

However badly his former school may miss Earl's presence, we are certainly glad he chose our campus this year. He's quiet but studious and we can assure you that he will reach the top some day.

JUNE L. BEANE

RAMSEUR, N. C.

A.B.

Δ A E

Guilford, 1, 2, 3; Thalean Literary Society, 4.
He may be small, yet he is O. K. when it comes to study, sport, and other extra-curricular activities. We hope he is as proud of his Alma Mater as we shall be of him.

JAMES R. BRANDON

HIGH POINT, N. C.

A.B.

Δ A E

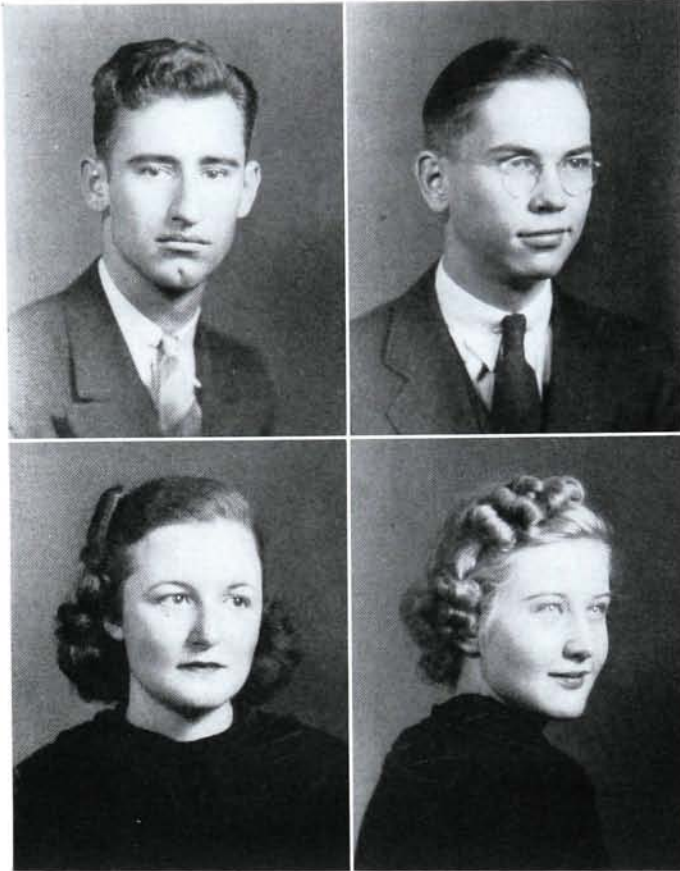

We hear that James played around during his Freshman year, but really set to work with gusto afterward. His efforts will surely be amply rewarded when he receives his degree this spring. The campus organizations will miss his smile.

RUTH BRILES

HIGH POINT, N. C.

A.B.

Ruth, we know, is pleasant, sweet and kind to everyone. Although there has not been much time for outside activities, a genuine interest and appreciation for music and an ardent zeal for study ranks her as one of our best students.

• S E N I O R C L A S S • • • •

Soccer, 1, 2, 3; Basketball, 1, 2, 3, 4; Football, 4;
Dormitory Council, 4; Baseball, 1, 2, 3, 4; Block "H"
Club, 2, 3, 4.

Basketball claims part of Earl's time; yet he finds time for study.

DAVID F. COOPER

HIGH POINT, N. C.

A.B.

E H Ø

Hi-Po, 1, 2, 3, 4; Editor, 4; Student Council, 3, 4;
Treasurer, 3, 4; Band, 1, 2, 3, 4; Akrothianian Literary Society, 1, 2, 3, 4; Treasurer, 2; Vice-President, 3; Tennis Team, 3, 4; Who's Who, 4.

David's newsy "scoops" will help him keep the wolf from his door.

EDNA MAE EDWARDS

PORTSMOUTH, VA.

A.B.

Chowan, 1, 2, 3; Artemesian Literary Society, 4.

Edna Mae's interest in books, as evidenced by her work in the new library, will give her many outlooks and opportunities for greater success in the teaching field.

HILDRETH VIOLET GABRIEL

HIGH POINT, N. C.

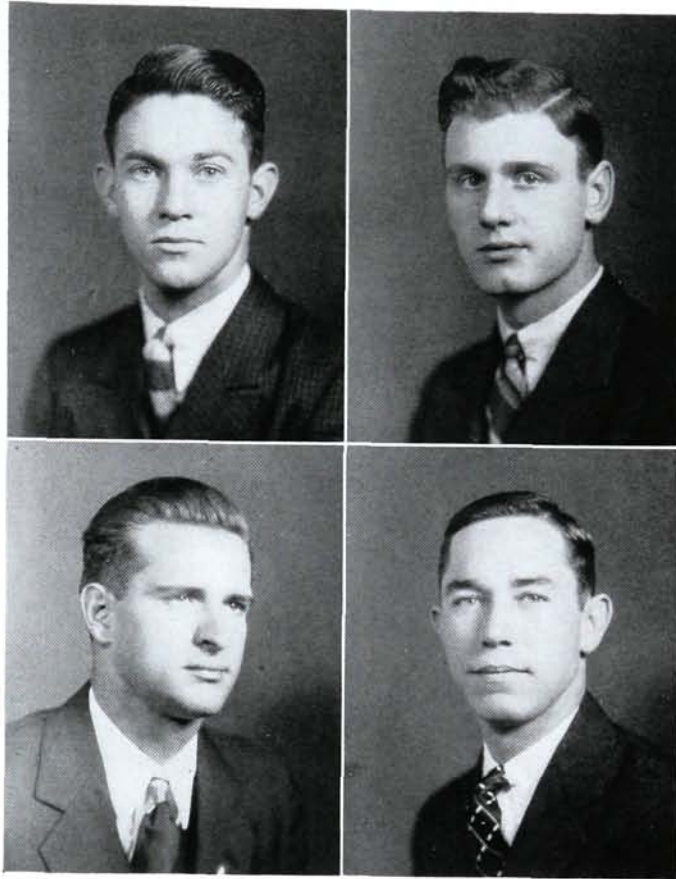

A.B.

A T P

Artemesian Literary Society, 1, 2, 3, 4; Critic, 4; Vice-President, 3; Marshal, 3.

A smiling face, a cheery "hello," quiet demeanor, literary society, marshal, honor roll, practice teacher—all these are definitely part of Hildreth.

Akrothinian Literary Society, 1, 2, 3, 4; Vice-President, 2; Critic, 3; Student Council, 2; Soccer, 2; Class President, 3; Marshal, 3; Forensic Representative, 3, 4.

Alson can make as big a success of hardware as he has of school life.

THERMON ERASTUS GRIGG

SHELBY, N. C.

A.B.

Δ A E

Baseball, 1, 2, 3, 4; Basketball, 1, 2; Soccer, 1, 2; Block "H" Club, 2, 3, 4; Football, 4.

A participant in basketball and baseball, a fervent enthusiast for all other sports, we find in "Rass" also a real friend.

WILLIAM CAREY HARELL

EURE, N. C.

A.B.

William and Mary, 1; Chowan, 2, 3.

Carey is a new student on our campus this semester, yet we hear that he spends his time wisely since he finished his practice teaching several days ahead of most the other students.

Basketball, soccer, fraternity, baseball, literary society—all will miss Wayne's ready aid.

MARY RUTH HENDRICKS
HIGH POINT, N. C.

A.B.
A T P

Nikanthan Literary Society, 1, 2, 3, 4; Choir, 2, 3.

One doesn't see so very much of Ruth, because she haunts the day student room most of the time, but when she is seen, she is always laughing and smiling at everyone.

THOMAS HAMPTON HILLIARD
THOMASVILLE, N. C.

A.B.

Thomas finds very little time for the extra-curricular activities of the college, yet from the little time that most of us are around him, we get that impression of a person who comes to college to get the most out of it.

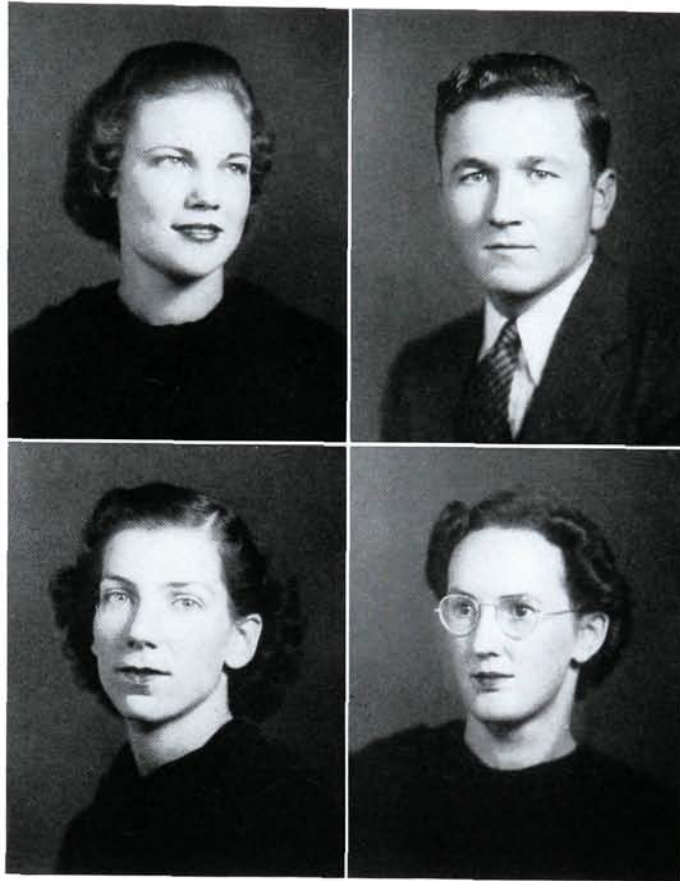

L. JEAN HOLLOMAN
AULANDER, N. C.

B.S. in Home Economics

Chowan, 1, 2, 3; W. A. A., 4; Christian Endeavor, 4; Artemesian Literary Society, 4; Modern Priscilla, 4.

Jean's cheery smile would be a hearty welcome to anyone across the breakfast table. Jean is worthy of all good that comes to her.

CLAUDE S. HOWELL
NORWOOD, N. C.

A.B.

Lenoir Rhyne, 1, 2.

Analytics, trigonometry, college algebra, anything mathematical, physics, chemistry, biology—these are associated with Claude. We are certain that these studies will take him far in the teaching world.

Monmouth, 1, 2; W. A. A., 3, 4; Nikanthan Literary Society, 3, 4; Commerce, 3; Christian Endeavor Society,
3, 4; Girls' Dormitory Council, 4.

Barbara's interest in finance, shorthand, typing, and retailing is an indication of her ambitions.

B.S. in Science

Chowan, 1, 2, 3; W. A. A., 4; W. A. A. Council, 4; Artemesian Literary Society, 4; Christian Endeavor, 4.

Destiny provides this one of the "Jones girls" with an ambition and a zeal for work which we are certain will send her much success.

HAZEL BERTRAM KISER

HIGH POINT, N. C.

A.B.

A T P

Artemesian Literary Society, 1, 2, 3, 4.

Hazel's real ambition is made manifest in the way she has tugged at her studies. Real teaching, we are sure, will be just as much fun for her as practice teaching was. She is truly a friend to all.

WHITMAN KEARNS

FARMER, N. C.

A.B.

Δ A E

Soccer, 1, 2, 3, 4; Basketball, 3, 4; Block "H" Club, 3, 4; Baseball Manager, 4.

Whitman has surprised all of us by proving to be a very worthwhile member of our basketball team. Too, he seems just as interested in the profession of teaching. Success to you.

MARYE NELSON KISER

HIGH POINT, N. C.

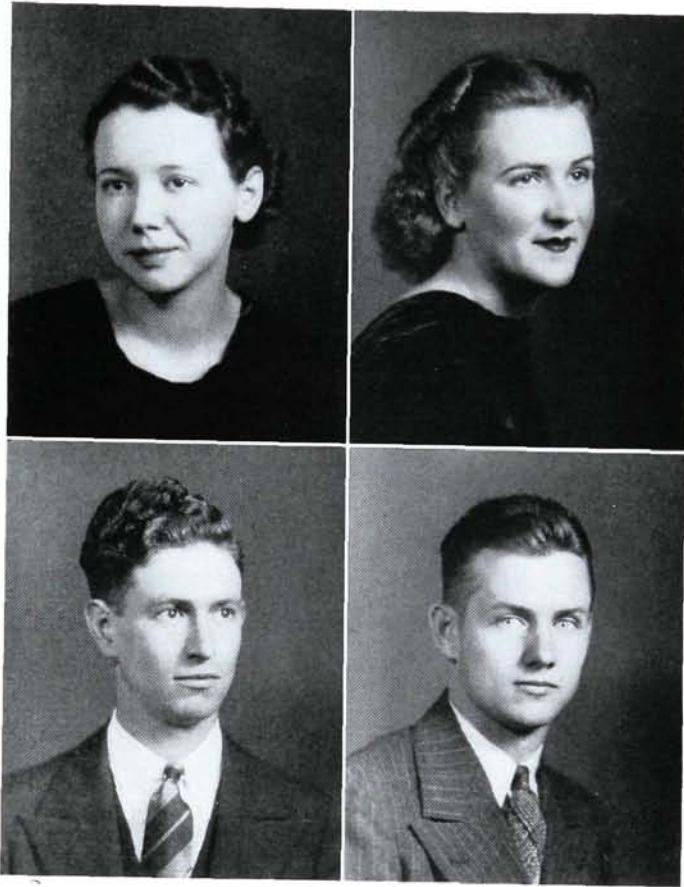

A.B.

A T P

Artemesian Literary Society, 1, 2, 3, 4; Basketball, 3; Baseball, 3.

Marye Nelson is a rather quiet person, yet she produces a personality on the instant which everyone enjoys. The sorority will also miss her winning smile quite a bit.

• S E N I O R C L A S S • • • •

LORENE MARIE KOONTZ

WINSTON-SALEM, N. C.

B.S. in Home Economics

Meredith, 1; Art Club, 2; Modern Priscilla Club, 1, 2, 3, 4; Christian Endeavor Society, 3, 4.

Her quiet, persevering manner will aid Lorene quite a lot when she gets into the Home Economics teaching field or in home-making.

CERELDA CELIA LACKEY

FALLSTON, N. C.

A.B.

Christian Endeavor Society, 1, 2, 3, 4; Nikanthan Literary Society, 1, 2, 3, 4; Secretary, 2; Y. W. C. A., 1, 2; Dormitory Student Council, 1; Class Secretary, 4; W. A. A., 1, 2, 3, 4; Class Manager, 3; ZENITH Editorial Staff, 4.

Her ready smile is welcome anywhere.

E. C. T. C., 1, 2.

Olivia Martin is a day student who doesn't spend much of her time at the college except when she is on class. However, she has one of those smiles that will make anyone happy when she flashes it.

KATHERINE MATTHEWS

MURFREESBORO, N. C.

A.B.

Chowan, 1, 2, 3; Woman's Athletic Association, 4; Artemesian Literary Society, 4.

Katherine graces any classroom or campus which she may choose to tread. Her cheery disposition and ambition will help her.

JAMES R. MATTOCKS

HIGH POINT, N. C.

A.B.

Δ A E

Akrothian Literary Society, 1, 2, 3, 4; Band, 1, 2, 3, 4; Marshal, 3; President Student Council, 4.

We know that James's calibre is of the best because of the trust and honor that the students have given him in the four years.

PAULINE ETHELDA MILLER

HIGH POINT, N. C.

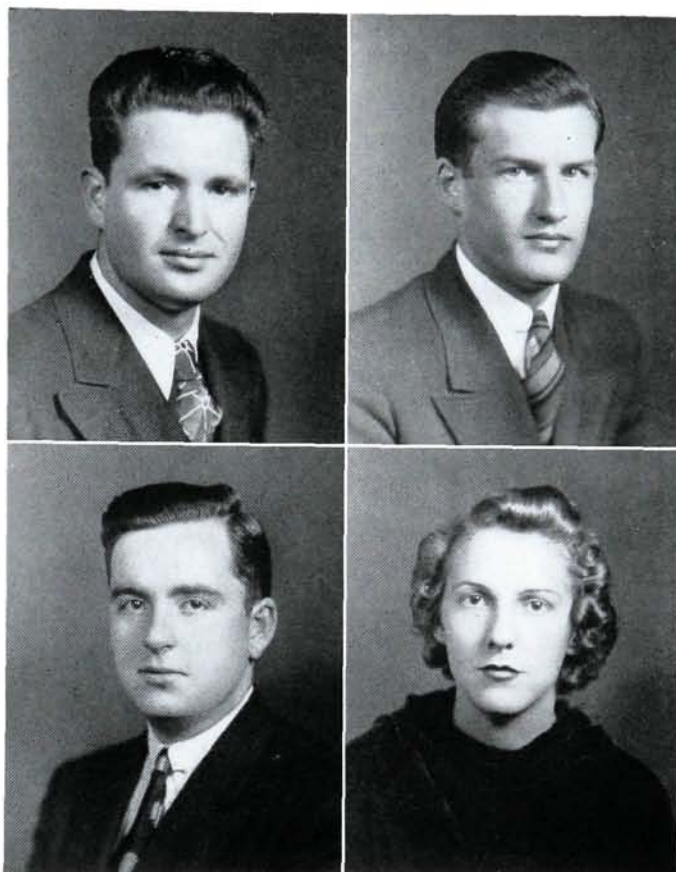

A.B.

A T P

Mars Hill, 1, 2; Choir, 3, 4.

Pauline is another quiet day student that we were lucky enough to have transferred to High Point. She confines most of her outside activities to the choir, but she is always a welcome member here.

Block "H" Club, 1, 2, 3; Akrothian Literary Society, 1, 2, 3; Soccer, 1, 2, 3; Baseball, 1, 2, 3, 4; Football, 4.

Johnny has been the good old standby in all of the sports except basketball for some time, and then this year he made good in football.

VIRGINIA A. SPRINKLE

TOBACCOVILLE, N. C.

A.B.

Guilford College, 1, 2; Nikanathan Literary Society, 3, 4; Chaplain, 4; Christian Endeavor Society, 3, 4.

Even though Virginia works two or three hours a day, she still finds time for many of the extra-curricular activities which High Point has.

ELSIE MAE SINK

HIGH POINT, N. C.

A.B.

A Capella Choir, 1, 2, 3; Nikanathan Literary Society, 2, 3, 4; Treasurer, 3; Critic, 4; ZENITH Editorial Staff, 3, 4.

Elsie Mae is every bit the capable person that her good record proves her to be.

EDWARD NEALE STIREWALT

HIGH POINT, N. C.

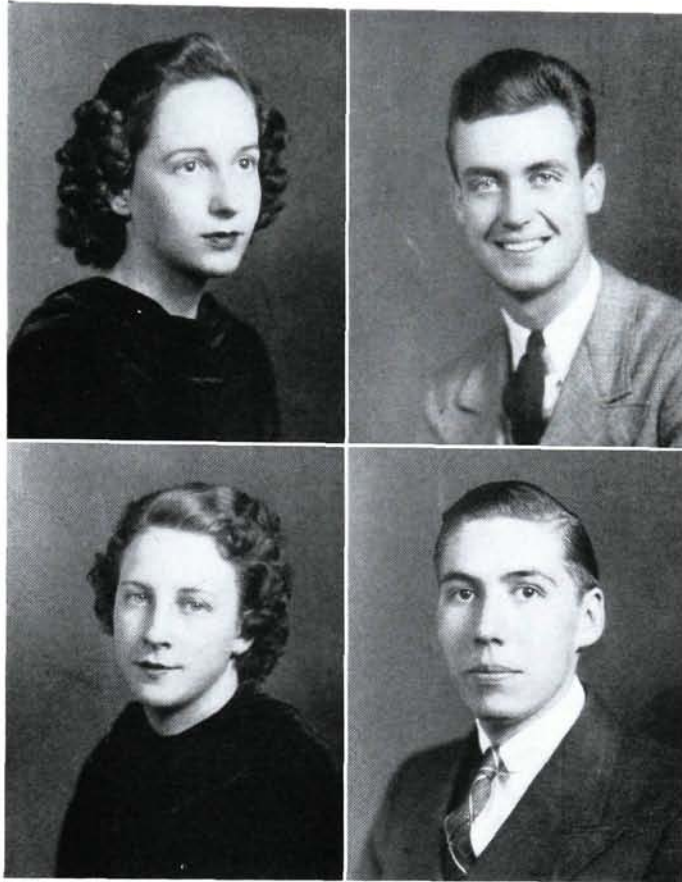

A.B. in Chemistry

I T K

Choir, 1, 2; Class Treasurer, 2; Debate, 3; Student Council, 3.

Chemical formulae, choir trips, a chance to pursue athletic enjoyments, attempting to finish in three years—all of these are a part of Ed's activities.

ELSIE RAIE TAYLOR

WINTON, N. C.

B.S. in Home Economics

Chowan, 1, 2, 3; Artemesian Literary Society, 4; Modern Priscilla Club, 4.

High Point was lucky enough to get Elsie Raie in her fourth year, and that was just enough to show us what we had missed.

ROBERT BANKS THAYER

HIGH POINT, N. C.

B.S. in Business Administration

Thalean Literary Society, 1; Guilford College, 2; Business Manager ZENITH, 4.

A shrewd salesmanship makes Banks a person difficult to refuse. He is a true Southerner in that he likes a good time, and yet he does rather well in his studies.

FLORENCE ELIZABETH WARD

HOBBSVILLE, N. C.

B.S. in Home Economics

Chowan, 1, 2, 3; Modern Priscilla Club, 4; Artemesian Literary Society, 4; Christian Endeavor, 4.

A newcomer, yet one feels that he has been her friend a long time when he becomes acquainted with her. Florence helps our school a lot.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT

Composed of thirteen representatives elected from the student body, a group known as the Student Council carries on one of the most liberal forms of student government of any college in the state. The members are elected from each of the four classes, and represent those people whom the students trust. This group works for mutual agreement between the administration and the students and has shown great strides in the development of a closer harmony in the two groups.

JAMES MATTOCKS

The president of the Student Council this year is James Mattocks, and under his direction especial progress has been made in the furthering of the social life on the campus in the forms of various functions held in the basement of our new library building.

No national fraternity or sorority is allowed on the campus. There is, however, a limited number of Greek letter social organizations in existence, and the Pan-Hellenic Council is the governing body of these groups. Composed of one student representative and one faculty honorary member from each of the three fraternities and three sororities, the Council decides upon various questions and problems such as rules governing membership and matters of policy presented by the members.

Much sought after on the campus, in spite of the attendant hard work, is membership in the A Capella Choir. Long practice sessions three times a week are eventually rewarded by a spring tour from a week to ten days in length. Last spring the tour took the choir up the Shenandoah Valley into Maryland, Pennsylvania, and on to New York City, where they sang from a metropolitan broadcasting station. The tours not only bring High Point College favorably before the people of other states, but provide a fund of amusing stories for months afterward. Under the able direction of Miss Janet Russell, a graduate of Oberlin College, with two years of study abroad to her credit, the choir has gained an enviable reputation for clarity of tone and depth of expression in their interpretation of widely varied types of music. Although their formal programs usually consist of religious music, negro spirituals being an unusually popular diversion, the campus is also familiar with their informal harmonizing on such themes as "Way Down in Honolulu," "Down by the Station," "Tell Me Why," "She'll Be Coming Round the Mountain," and "You Can't Get to Heaven," the last with newly improvised verses at each rendition. Limited to approximately thirty-five voices, the choir, like all other campus groups, must undergo a partial reorganization each year, with competitive tryouts establishing membership. Intensive rehearsals then follow, in order that the group may learn to function as a unit, and no programs are scheduled until after the Christmas holidays. On return from the Christmas vacation, the choir is away from the campus almost every week-end, most Sunday schedules including morning and evening concerts. The bus which is used to convey the songsters to and from these engagements is familiarly known by various endearing terms.

HOME MANAGEMENT HOUSE

Every girl working for a B.S. degree in Home Economics looks forward to the time when she will have the privilege of living in the Home Management House. As she lives in a group with other Home Economics majors, she applies the principles she has been learning in her four years training to the management of the home. She gains a greater appreciation of human values in group living, a keener understanding of the value of time and energy, and the importance of careful managing of money and material resources. Shown on the right are groups typical of the work in the Home Management House.

ATHLETICS

ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

The Athletic Association of the college is the governing body of all the various sports in which the school participates. Dr. C. R. Hinshaw is president of this group, and under his direction the group gives to the students a varied and interesting athletic program.

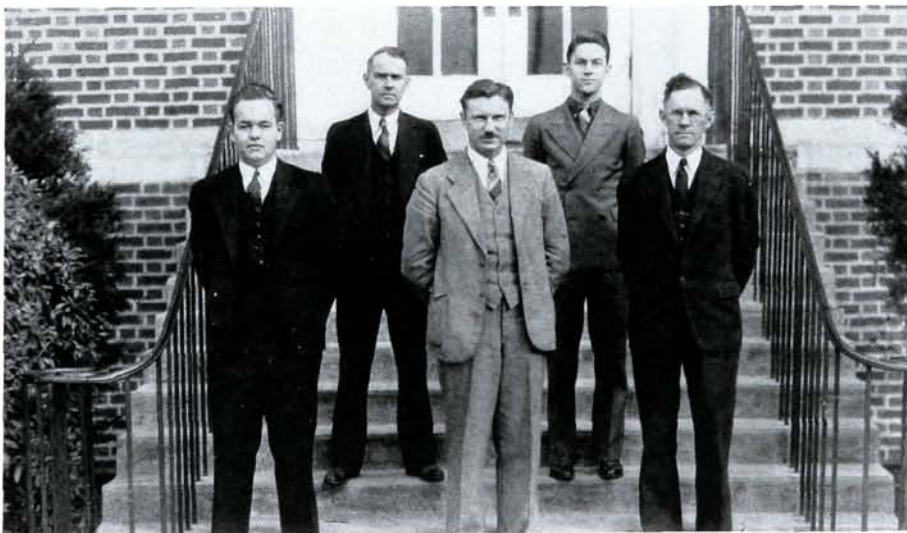

This body functions in the capacity of determining the eligibility of players, the enforcement of the conference rules, the scheduling of games, and the awarding of trophies and monograms at the end of the season.

This council had a new sport to cope with this year, but most of the faculty members are veterans at this job and have proved themselves capable before. Therefore, the great national sport of football came through with flying colors.

This Athletic Association stands for the very highest in athletic sportsmanship. They have always put forth the standard of clean playing and loyalty to both the school and the other fellow, so that High Point may go on the record as a fair opponent.

R E S U M É

A new football era was inaugurated at High Point College this fall as the national sport returned once again to its campus. Working with a small but spirited squad, coaches managed to turn in a most impressive record. Winning three games, tying two and losing one.

In the initial performance, the fighting Panthers managed to snatch a victory from the highly rated Lee's McRae Junior College aggregation. A stubborn forward wall was mainly responsible for this victory. Sparked by Lawing and Tarver, the "mules" held consistently with their backs to the wall. Lawing, lacking in size, good-natured and tractable, but able to inspire the whole line to a fighting pitch, was a big factor in the victory. With agility and swiftness, and their characteristic ferociousness, the High Pointers again emerged victorious from a battle with the Christians of Elon. It was Secret who twice tallied for the Panthers of High Point College, and his long pass to the sure fingered, wiry Malfregeot garnered another tally. It was the West Virginian's day. The Panthers within the fastness of Appalachian's own mountain lair, flowed in spurts and darts, but lagged slightly in the closing canto, only to be tied by the State Teachers. Starting a trifle slow, the Teachers of Eastern Carolina gradually grew into a storm which time after time repulsed the hard Panther thrusts, and handed the Purple their only setback of the season. The Purple Juggernaut, anxious to get back into the win column, steam rolled over a strong Catawba team. The Panthers, much to the chagrin of the "Indians" of Catawba, displayed a brilliant array of all the tricks of the game, crossing the final chalk mark four times. In this particular encounter, Bob Standing, the "Crimson Comet," was the outstanding figure on the field, a tower of strength on defense, shaking his hips adroitly, side-stepping would-be tacklers, and finally topping a brilliant afternoon's work by a hair-raising forty-yard gallop to the goal line. The curtain fell on the final and headline act of the season when the Panthers battled a bigger and stronger Western Carolina Teachers College team to a scoreless tie. This was a glorious ending and truly a moral victory. Jack Moran, the Long Island Duckling, spent most of the afternoon in Western Carolina's backfield. Moran's ability to decipher the Catamounts' plays made him a thorn in their side. Dragging down carriers far behind the line of scrimmage and warding off blockers, Moran turned in a most spectacular performance, along with Graham Armstrong, who threaded his way repeatedly through the opposing line to do serious damage.

Fighting against all manner of odds, including superiority of numbers, gamely and bravely the Panthers held each of her opponents at bay. The '37 season is closed, and true to the spirit of all activities of High Point College, it matters not who won the games, but how they were played.

The Purple Panthers opened their cage season with a victory over the Appalachian Teachers quint by the score of 36-33, and thus started another title chase rather handsomely.

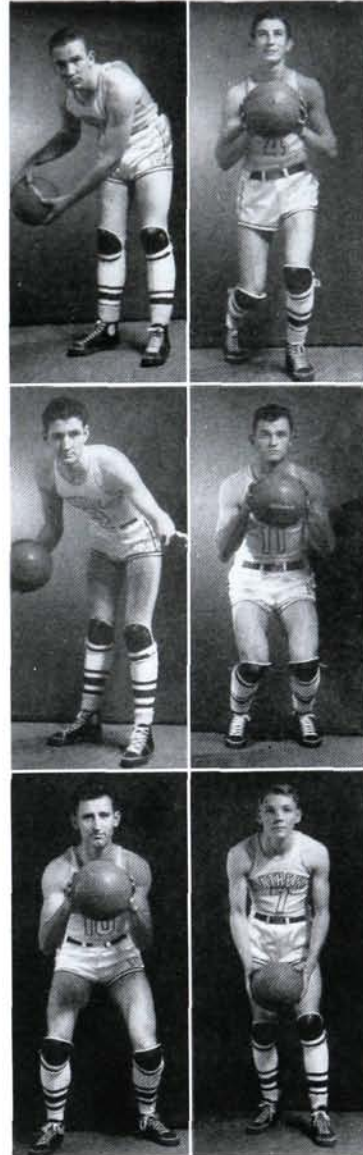

In the second game the Purple and White tossers turned back the well-balanced Lenoir-Rhyne five by the narrow margin of 41-39. Leading at the half by three points the Yowmen managed to put the game on ice when the elongated Hampton tipped in 2 double deckers, in the closing minutes of play.

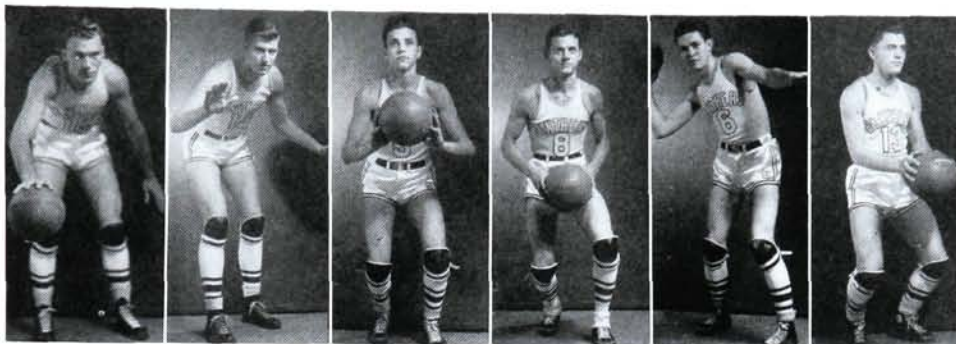

Again Appalachian fell before the Panthers. Trailing at intermission the Purple and White basketekers staged a last canto drive led by the diminutive Malfregeot the pop-shot artist, and took the game out of the Appalachian bag.

It was a nip and tuck battle from the toss up to the final whistle, but the Elon quintet won the thriller and handed the Panthers a 2 point embarrassment. The final score was 35-33.

The Purple got back into the win column by trimming the Teachers from Western Carolina 37-31. It was the steady floor play and point netting ability of Captain Harris that was largely responsible for the victory.

The Yowmen drubbed the Guilford Quakers 90-17, in a game that saw the entire Panther squad hitting the basket for at least 10 points. Martin was high scorer in this game.

The next foe to fall before the Panther stride was Atlantic Christian College, by the score of 43-31. Leading through the entire game the High Point quint was never in danger. Brinkley and McKeithen shared the scoring honors.

Elon again eked out a one point victory over the Yow tossers. The stellar work of Towery was not enough to best the Christians of Elon. By defeating the Panthers the Elonites practically cinched the title.

Atlantic Christian College was again taken into camp by the Panthers 56-28. The Yowmen piled up an early lead that was never in danger. The defensive work of the aggressive Cochrane was evident in this game. When Hampton rested, Cochrane handled the pivot position and did not excellent job.

Knotted at the half the Panthers came back strong to take a game from the Quakers, 37-33. The battle was a see-saw affair for almost three quarters, when Jack Moran, stalwart guard, cut loose and put the game on ice.

Guilford College was beaten badly by the Panthers 56-31. Every member of the squad saw action and a field night was enjoyed by the Panthers. Whit Kearns copped high scoring honors, looping in 16 points.

Catawba was an easy victory for the Panthers, score 54-37. Morton Samet, the High Point Houdini, was the outstanding performer in purple. He took the ball away from his opponents time after time and hit the loop for 15 points, pacing his colleagues.

A revamped Lenoir-Rhyne team pinned a decisive defeat on the Purple Panthers to the tune of 57-42. The Panthers were never able to threaten the high-flying Bears. Leading at the half the Lenoir-Rhyne five continued to pile up a lead that the Panthers were not able to overcome.

The Panthers won over Western Carolina State Teachers by the score of 38-33. The Purple and White were, however, slow in getting started and at intermission enjoyed only a one-point lead over the catamounts. In the final twenty minutes the Yowmen, paced by Bill Hester, built up a sizable lead which the Teachers could not overcome.

In the third game of the series the Teachers of Western Carolina avenged the earlier defeats pinned on them by the High Pointers and turned back the Purple basketweavers by the score of 45-38. Trailing at halftime the Catamounts gradually grew into a storm that blew the Panthers out of the victory.

The season was a most successful one with twelve victories and four defeats. The Panthers under the tutelage of the astute Coach Yow were the contenders for the championship in the North State Conference. Yow fashioned a formidable quintet, which was a tower of strength on the defense, and possessed a scoring combination that was difficult to stop. The Panthers, while they did not bring another conference title to the College, carried on true to the spirit of all their predecessors.

B A S E B A L L

The Purple Panthers baseball team of the school year '36-'37 enjoyed a successful season, winning 11 games and losing 4, thus garnering for themselves second place in the North State Conference.

The seven returning lettermen and a host of hopeful aspirants made the task of forming a formidable nine an easier job than it had been in recent years. Harris, Rudisill, Gregg, Martin, Towery, Brinkley, and Yow shared most of the brunt of the attack. Wagner filled the shoes of Dorset in the backstop position and turned in a most creditable season. Hampton took over the initial sack and proved himself to be quite potent at the bat.

Most of the mound duty was handled by Yow and Brinkley. These men are credited with most of the High Point victories.

Although the 1937 team did not annex another Conference title, the entire squad worked hard and displayed the usual high type of sportsmanship that is typical of all High Point College teams.

T E N N I S

The enticing sport tennis invigorated the participants to a great extent this past sport year at High Point College. When coach Owens called for representatives for the tennis team, his call was generously answered by a large number of students.

Coach Owens picked from the many hopefuls, Wilson Rogers, who was later named captain, Cooper, Short, Pressley, Armfield, Hinshaw, and Setzer. These were the men who showed best in the school tournament and were selected on their relative merits.

The schedule was a rather ambitious one, listing as it did, the strongest teams in the conference. Included in the Purple and White netmen's schedule were Guilford, Elon, Atlantic Christian college, Catawba, Lenoir-Rhyne, and Louisburg.

The racquet and the netmen from High Point twice humbled the Quakers of Guilford. Both victories were won only after hard-fought matches, and the Quakers went down fighting. In their next match the Purple went down to defeat at the hands of the powerful Elon net team, who won a decisive victory. Atlantic Christians were next for the Panthers and from these two matches the High Point team emerged victorious. Louisburg was beaten badly by the High Point team in the only match that they lost all season. In the last two matches the Panthers went down to defeat before two powerful foes, Catawba and Lenoir-Rhyne.

Although not a truly successful season, the team carried on, true to their Purple and White banner.

JUNIOR VARSITY

The High Point Purple Kittens turned in a most impressive hardwood record this past basketball season. Completing a twenty-game campaign, they won seventeen and lost three imbroglios.

Making a pre-season barnstorming trip to the western part of the State, they emerged with the scalps of eight teams in as many starts. These teams were the leading high school and semi-pro quintets in the Cleveland county.

The Kittens showed well in the Junior division of the A. A. U. tournament. They were eliminated in the semi-finals after a hard-fought battle.

They display a brand of ball and a class of floor work that is seldom seen in prep circles and a scoring combination built up around "Big" Bill Keen that was difficult to stop.

Carrying the brunt of the attack was Buren Garlington, Bill Keen, Frank Murray, Claude Watts and William Henderson. It was the scoring ability of this five that contributed largely to the successful season. Others who provided the scoring punch were Lemaster, Albertson, Welborn, Garmon, and Hinshaw.

Each member of the Purple Kittens showed a marked improvement during the season. Many will graduate to the varsity and give promise of strengthening the varsity.

Thus came to a close the Junior basketball season. The Juniors will fill the vacancies left by graduation on the varsity, and therefore the team has served its purpose.

WOMAN'S ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

The college W. A. A. is one of the youngest, yet one of the most active organizations on the campus. This year, sponsored by Miss Strickler, and with Olga Marlette as president, the W. A. A. has been a tremendous success. At the beginning of the year thirty-five sports-loving co-eds were added to the roll.

Soccer, volleyball, basketball, tumbling, tennis, ping-pong, badminton, and baseball filled the calendar for the year. Between the classes keen rivalry was shown as they practiced for the various tournaments, with their enthusiasm reaching its peak in close games determining the victors in each sport. From the entire group of girls out for sports, a varsity team was chosen for each particular field of activity. These teams were picked by Miss Strickler, the coach, who has so ably filled her position.

Not all of the work of this association is confined to sports alone. It is an annual tradition of the organization to sponsor a carnival, rivaling the county fairs in color, eats, games of chance, and fun for all. So to the furtherance of the W. A. A. we all lend our support for still more successful years in the future.
